The Suspense is Killing Me!

You've binge watched your favorite program for three days straight. You've been able to watch every episode and put every piece of the puzzle together... except the last! Finally, you come to the climax of the entire series, and just when the answer will be revealed... the electricity goes out! Nooooooooooooo! You know what it's like to be in suspense - a very terrible place to be. Well, come worship this weekend where instead of the

SERVE

ARMED FORCES WEEKEND:

The weekend of May 18/19 we will recognize and pay tribute to men and women who serve the United States' armed forces. Look for the table in narthex where you can sign cards to our service men and women. There will also be plastic soldiers to take home and remind them to prayer for our services members. Beginning this weekend we will be taking up a collection for the Adopt a VA program for homeless vets— move in essentials such as cleaning supplies, mops, brooms, paper towels, TP, any items (excluding food) to help someone move in. Could include housewares too such as plates, silverware, utensils.

GROW

STATE SCIENCE FAIR:

Last weekend 9 students from St. Peter qualified and participated in the Illinois Junior Academy State Science Fair. This fair includes students in grades 7-12 from schools all across Illinois. We are proud to announce that all 9 students from St. Peter won Gold! Several students won best in their category too. Congratulations to these students! Special thanks to Ms. Duff for leading them to their gold!

Flowers are available at school front doors; May 9 - 12

FLOWERS FOR SALE:

It's not too late to buy your spring flowers from the PTL. Flowers, vegetables, herbs and hanging baskets and pots perfect for Mother's Day will be sold in the school lobby May 10. Remaining plants may be available for sale between the church services on May 12.
